Lent is a solemn, reflective season of the liturgical year that is the preparation for the mysteries of Easter. It begins Ash Wednesday, and lasts forty days, until Easter (the forty days do not include the Sundays during Lent). On Ash Wednesday, people come to church to receive ashes on their forehead, a reminder that without God we are simply dust. The forty days of Lent recall the forty days that Jesus spent in the desert before his public ministry. During Lent, Christians are called to renew themselves through fasting, prayer, and almsgiving (giving money and service to those in need).

Holy Week begins a week before Easter Day, on Palm Sunday. During Holy Week, we remember the events of the final days of Jesus' earthly life, beginning with his triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Passion (or Palm) Sunday. The last three days of Holy Week bring everything to a climax in a series of three special liturgies, called the Triduum.

- In the Holy Thursday liturgy, we remember the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of himself in the Eucharist. A foot-washing ritual is part of the liturgy, reminding us that Jesus calls us to serve one another as his followers. On this day we also recall the institution of the priesthood.
- In the Good Friday liturgy, we remember Jesus' Passion and Death. The liturgy is somber, and starts and ends with a bare altar. During the liturgy we venerate (show our love and respect for) the cross in some way, in appreciation of Christ's sacrifice.
- The Holy Saturday liturgy is held at night and is called the Easter Vigil. It is the greatest celebration of the liturgical year, recalling and reliving the joy of Christ's Resurrection. The celebration incorporates rituals of darkness and light, of water-blessing, and lots of Scripture reading. But the highlight is the Baptism, Confirmation, and First Communion of the catechumens (those people who have been preparing for many months to become Catholics).

Easter and the Easter Season are the primary focus of the liturgical year. Easter celebrates the wonder and joy of Christ's Resurrection, the central mystery of our faith. The Easter season goes on for fifty days after Easter Sunday, until the feast of Pentecost. It is a time of joy and hope, for death has been overcome and Christ has made us all heirs of the Kingdom of God. Because of the events of Easter, we dare to hope for our own Resurrection and eternal life with God.
